Episode 4 Action Items

Episode Summary

Discover the transformative power of mentor intelligence—a cornerstone skill cultivated through purposeful relationships and unwavering integrity. Glean actionable strategies from Al's seminal work, "Growing Mentor Intelligence: A Field Guide to Mentoring," as he articulates practical steps for fostering effective leadership and mentorship. From leading by example to upholding standards with humility and empathy, Al provides a comprehensive roadmap to navigate the dynamic challenges of today's business environment with confidence and integrity.

Action Items

1. Walk the talk.

Set the example by your actions not just your words.

2. Treat everyone with dignity and respect.

Don't just treat everyone how you want to be treated, treat them how they want to be treated.

3. Understand the difference between your intent and the effect you achieve.

Be aware of different personalities and different understandings of your message. Monitor the messages you send out and the impact you achieve on the lives of those receiving your message.

4. Lead with humility not ego.

Work on your emotional intelligence every day. A humble leader is a lifelong learner.

5. Enforce your standards.

The only standard that counts is the one you choose to enforce.
